

Christine Bennett

Christine Malpica-Bennett is Co-owner of Revolution Rental Management, a full service property management company. Combining residential property management, Association Management, as well as commercial property management. She is a Long Island native who calls central Florida home. Migrating to Florida for collage, she obtained a bachelors degree in Organizational Management. She is a proud mother her young daughter, saying that this role is the most important one she has.

Christine has 12 plus years of real estate experience combined with a paralegal background. Starting her career in 2008 she gravitated toward investment properties helping owners navigate the distressed market. Christine has short sale negotiation experience as well as bank owned real property sales. She also invests in real estate herself through a small investment company she also owns.

Having investment experience naturally lead to extensive training in property management. Christine has specialized in property management for more than half of her career. Helping landlords and tenants navigate the legal intricacies of the easing process. She prides herself on constantly staying abreast of changes in the rental market and legislation affecting the industry.

Christine enjoys volunteering her time in the community. She is our NARPM 2020 Community Awareness Chairperson. She also donates time to our local real estate board, Orlando Regional Realtor Association. Christine enjoys traveling a free spending time with her family in her free time. Overall, she is a dedicated women with an abundance of experience in the real estate industry.