

Marco Nelson

Marco Nelson is CEO and Co-founder of RentCheck. RentCheck is the property management solution that helps property managers save time on inspections with easy self-guided inspections that residents can do from their smartphone. RentCheck standardizes property inspections to help property managers accurately document properties and avoid disputes over security deposits with tenants. Marco attended the United States Naval Academy while earning a BS in Economics, and was a standout football player, holding the NCAA record. After graduation, he went on to serve 7 1/2 years as an Officer in the United States Navy. Over the last 10 years, Marco has bought and renovated multiple rental properties and is a longtime landlord and real estate investor. Marco holds a Masters in Business Administration from Tulane University.
