

Wesley Aleshire

Wesley has worked within the property management industry for over 20-years starting as a part-time leasing professional in 1997. Since then, Wesley has stayed involved in this industry with roles such as: Regional Manager, National Trouble-Shooter, Director of Contract Acquisitions and Regional Training Manager. He has served our industry's Board of Directors on city and state levels and as Chairman of Education. In 2015 & 2016 as part of a training team, he received international recognition for building a training culture by receiving the ATD Best Award presented by the Association for Training & Development.

Wesley resides in Atlanta, GA where he oversees the training initiatives for Pegasus Residential as the Director of Learning & Development Innovations.